Family : noun; 1. People linked together by common ancestors 2. People who are bonded together by love

Endearment : noun; 1. A word to express love and care for others

Friend : noun; 1. Those who share a mutual fondness of one another

Family : noun; 1. People linked together by common ancestors 2. People who are bonded together by love

Affection : noun; 1. A compelling fondness for another person or persons

Devotion : noun; 1. To be dedicated to a person or activity

Family : noun; 1. People linked together by common ancestors 2. People who are bonded together by love

Tenderness : noun; 1. To be gentle and kind to other living things

Caring : adjective; To be kind and concerned for others

Endearment : noun; 1. A word to express love and care for others

Devotion : noun; 1. To be dedicated to a person or activity

Fondness : noun; 1. To like something or someone: She has a fondness for chocolate

Devotion : noun; 1. To be dedicated to a person or activity

Delight : verb; 1. To please others : noun; 1. To take great pleasure from something

Soulmate : noun; 1. To be a perfect match for a friend or partner

Happiness : noun; 1. To feel happy within oneself

Happiness : noun; 1. To feel happy within oneself

Contentment : noun; 1. To feel satisfied with all that one has

Contentment : noun; 1. To feel satisfied with all that one has

Delight : verb; 1. To please others : noun; 1. To take great pleasure from something

Beautiful : adjective; 1. To be pleasing to the senses aesthetically

Happiness : noun; 1. To feel happy within oneself

Beautiful : adjective; 1. To be pleasing to the senses aesthetically

Joy : noun; 1. To feel immense pleasure and happiness

Delight : verb; 1. To please others : noun; 1. To take great pleasure from something

Images Created by Shabbydabbydoodah